El Pimpi

Authentic Andalusian tavern located in the historic centre of Málaga and specialized in wines and select tapas. There are two entrances, one for C / Granada and one in C / Alcazabilla opposite the Roman Theatre. There are two floors with large rooms and typical patios. Its decoration is based on flamenco and bullfighting motifs, among which an collection of antique posters of fairs and bulls is worthy of mention.

“Chiringuitos” Beach bars

The Costa del Sol is very well known for its beaches and the food associated with fishing traditions. Beach bars – known in Spanish as chiringuitos are the best way to enjoy both at the same time. Standing by the sea, they all serve the iconic pescaito frito (deep-fried fish) that is synonymous with coastal Málaga, as well as the sardine skewers that pepper the coastline, roasting on fishing boats. These beachfront establishments are the perfect place to savour Málaga fried seafood, washing it down with cold beer or sangria
